WITHOUT A FIRE

Mother Can Feed Family One Whole Day and Not Go Near Stove.

BY MRS, EMILY REISENBERGER, Three meals a day without a fire is inviting to the housewife and it is easy, unless you insist upon hot drinks. If you do, try powdered coffee, easily soluable cocoa or make tea; none of which require cooking adn it takes but a few minutes to boil wate or milk.

To lighten the work in hot weather, use some canned or package goods, or patronize a delicatessen shop for cold meats, etc. Delicious food can be made at home and if paper nap-kins, dishes and table cloths are used, the "redding up" and dish-washing is reduced to the minimum.

As substantials, cold meats, salads, computes and cereals and bread and butter offer something for each meal while simple desserts, fruits, wafers or cookies and the drink desired, will complete your menus without using the frying pan or oven.
